William G. Fletcher, (1914-1968)

B.A., Clark University
M.A., Yale University
Ph.D., Yale University

If there was a symbol of an educated man at Rollins, most students would immediately think of Dr. William Fletcher. He was the epitome of the contemporary man. He was a man who was educated not only in the realm of academia, but also in the world of human experience. A generator of enthusiasm and awareness, Dr. Fletcher was endowed with a special quality of empathy for his students. He represented a man who was diplomatic, yet strong in his convictions . . . Who valued the worthiness of past traditions, yet was receptive to progressive thought . . . who accepted new responsibilities, yet was always mindful of old obligations . . . who was an outstanding professor, yet whose interest in students extended beyond the classroom. Dr. Fletcher was an asset to the college as well as to the national government. His opinion was sought not only by students, but also by fellow scholars.

He had an innate ability to recognize the true potential of his students and an ultimate objective to encourage their awareness and utilization of their talents.

MISS TOMOKAN

Jane Carrison

In choosing Miss Tomokan for 1969, the staff has honored a senior whose tireless efforts and activities have contributed much to the spirit and name of Rollins. Jane Carrison is one of those rare people who possess beauty, spirit, liveliness and an active interest in student affairs while maintaining a high scholastic average.

An English major from Jacksonville, Florida, Jane is a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority, of which she is Corresponding Secretary. In student organizations she holds membership in Lower Court, the Chapel Staff, the Student-Faculty Administration Council and serves as Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Student Center. Jane is also on the Editorial Board of the Flamingo.

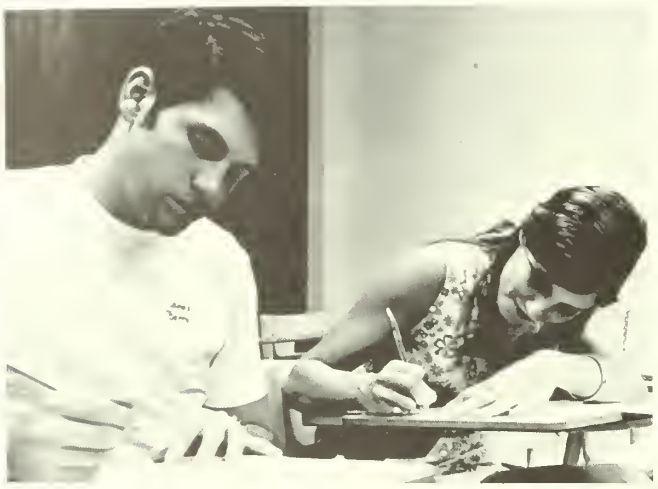
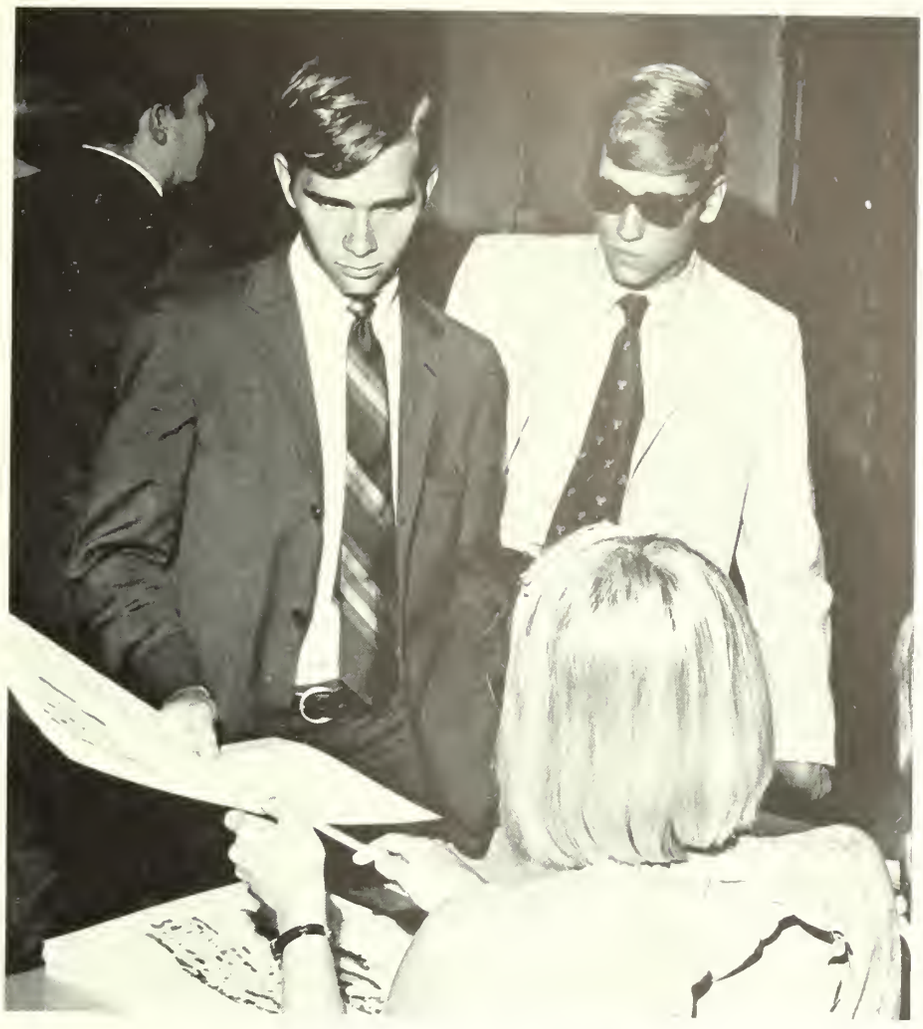
FRESHMAN CLASS 1969

ORIENTATION 1969

With, a new title, new format, and a new staff of administrators and selected upper classmen, College Preparation Week presented three hundred and thirty-one screaming freshmen with their first taste of Rollins College.

A number of examinations covering the new students' integrated organizational flexibilities and capabilities, as well as his balanced transitional projection, and, of course, physical fitness were combined with meetings with advisors, and lectures dealing with aspects of college life, in a successful effort to introduce the class of 1972 to the fundamentals of existence at Rollins.





There were the usual highpoints from "Orientation Weeks" of years past. The Union Mixer was an overwhelming success, as was the mass migration to the West Side Pool. It will, however, never take the place of the cool clear waters of Lake Virginia in the hearts of the "Rollins Family." An explanation of the Rollins College "Hour-Glass Curriculum" was met with the usual enthusiasm, as was the wide variety of freshman courses available for the three terms of the school year.

An important aspect of College Preparation Week, not to be overlooked, is, of course, the number of lasting friendships which begin every year at this time. Both the freshmen and upperclassmen (who were fortunate enough to be allowed on campus at this time) enjoyed the opportunity of establishing new relationships with people of varied backgrounds; people who ultimately become an integral part of the "Rollins Family."

A vast amount of credit must be given Mr. Richard Stabell, Chairman of the College Preparation Week Committee for the time he devoted to the successful reorganization of the old "Orientation Week." Our thanks also go to the student chairmen, Jack Myers and Josie Gittes, without whose dedicated assistance, College Preparation Week could not have served the useful purpose that it did.

MISS ROLLINS

Mary Fuller

In May, the traditional Miss Rollins contest was held in the Gamma Phi courtyard. The lovely contestants, sponsored by various groups on campus, were judged on their beauty, poise and personality. Miss Mary Fuller best fulfilled these qualities and was chosen as Miss Rollins for 1968-1969. A sophomore from Indianapolis, Mary is majoring in English and Philosophy and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority. She belongs to many organizations on campus including the Steering Committee and presently serves as Associate Editor of the R-Book. Mary was sponsored by X-Club.

GREEKS

ALPHA PHI

'68-'69 was an Alpha Phi Year. Shelly did it for mother and counted the days 'til wedding bells will ring. Debby became a professional single girl; Played games with George. Maria planned another trip to Mexico. P. F. was evicted while Mr. Bundy made frequents trips from Gainesville. Gail got a ROCK and kept everyone waiting. Seal moved up to cloud nine during Christmas vacation. Viano became "the Teach." Paula, the most beautiful girl in her anatomy class, turned 21. Margie visited Gainesville more often, had a candlelight. Joanie gave Bill a birthday surprise, collected Campbell's Soup cans. Barb spent most of her time in the date room and Mrs. Garment returned to Rollins. Pam found a Leech. Kathy K. became the weekend raider and Merry disappeared in the basement of the ad building. Gwen became a professional journalist. Sue Williams got into "shape" and Lynne changed her major. Roni made real Italian Spaghetti, had her wheels stolen. Beaver went crazy, accompanied Crosby in the move south. Roberta severed old ties, became a "new woman." Joye kept it clean and Sue Deutch hid when the phone rang. Gink had a Rich and rewarding experience mending pants, and Hawoth widened her horizons in the blue bomb. Maralyn had a candlelight and Sue Johnson read her horoscope. Sandy became a towny, killed her jag. Lincoln had a little Spanish moss trouble with "first dates." Katje did a lot of sailing and excluded Paul from her list. Shove followed in her big sister's footsteps and found her fun in the big city. Donna had trouble eating and hob-nobbed with the jet set Winter term. C. T. rushed for the Sigma Nus in the Teke house. Margot became the first floor medium, saw the lights. Balwin gave Albrect another brick. Carmen became our second Cuban and Marlene called the Sig Eps for flat tire repairs. Antje waited tables for twelve weeks. Janet Howell was the Van Cliburn of the Phi House. Lawton is revising the book 101 Ways to Fish In by Douda and Crosby. Pat made frequent visits to Daytona, learned how to fly a Cloud Nine. Janet Mann took a trip to Martinique and Jackie practiced jumping out of 2nd story windows. Verlie stole pillows and Carolyn mastermined pledge pranks, swore she was innocent. Margie smiled through it all and Joan's mother converted.

CHI OMEGA

The Chi O Owl has once again swooped down on his loyal Chi O's bearing Awards and gifts for surviving another year at Rollins. Some awards given were as folows: "The Gold Brick Award" to Pam Samson, and naturally a birthday cake to celebrate receiving it. "The Mother of the Year Award" to Ann Schwartz . . . "The Debutante of the Year" to Elsie . . . "The Three Muskateers Award" and another years supply of laughing gas—to Betsie, Fran, and Paula . . . "The Dynamic Duo" Award to Louise and Carole, plus a steak apiece . . . The "Volunteer if you can't do it Anyway" Award naturally is bestowed on Mimi Rose . . . Finally, we mustn't forget Michele and "The Flying Fickel Finger of Fate" Award.

The Chi O Owl wouldn't think of forgetting any of his sisters so he brought a few gifts and words for the rest of the crew also; To Kim—a book called "Practice What You Preach," To Gidget—a little Chi O know how, To Val—a solid gold map of the Winter Park—Orlando area, To Phoebe—an effective alarm clock—Super Deluxe Model, To Crane—the address of the Chi O house, To Girard—potato salad, To Bartock—a Senior key that not only lets you out of the house but hopefully brings you back in too, To Blocker—an invitation to a "Chi O" beer party on pledge Sunday, To Nancy—more love poems, To CeCe—a one hour recording of "Chuckie" so she can drive herself crazy rather than everyone else, To Sedan—Three more cents to add to her bank account, To Jan—an Art Department trip to Europe that ends going to Maitland, To Mannion—in case the need ever arises, a nice soft rug to fall on, To Candy—a gumdrop, To Carol W.—a peaceful room in the house, To Mainie—our congratulations for finally making it, To Baird—after surviving as our President she gets and deserves a year's rest at the Americana Nursing Home, To Cindy—a companion, To the pledges—a few surprises, and Finally to Greenie, a place in the yearbook.

GAMMA PHI BETA

The Gamma Phi's kicked off this year with three new players on the starting line: Vogel broke a foot and was benched; Kane was the first six-pointer; Maccubbin kicked the extra 5.6. Hobbie started the game off by singing the national anthem—"Sewanee, how I love ya . . ." Quarterback Skokje urged a United front . . . the Flagg went down on Pugh's final play . . . Bissell went for Breauk and got another star on her helmet.

Bostwick, Turnblacer, Cowen, and Lawrence ran a bakery concession on the sideline . . . Hamilton put on the big Rush . . . Pendleton changed to Haynes jerseys . . . Argeaux, our tight end, missed the whole third quarter . . . Hanse stopped the clock for a record eight weeks when she went out of bounds . . . Brand and Sanchez scored the first first downs . . . Hubbard Slacked off and only made second string . . . Barnhill got called for Dunkring . . . Heath had a Chip on her shoulder 'cause her team's in Boston . . . Booth TP'd the announcer's box . . . Kelso took a Star Trek across the field, as Howell made her record play . . . Hopson wanted to play by the Peruvian rules . . . Fuller was penalized for illegal procedure in the Christmas Card Bowl . . . Mary was in such rare form, we had to Cart 'er off the field.

The pledges came in at half time to cheer the team on to victory, while Coach MacPherson made donuts to celebrate the successful season.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Contrary to popular opinion, Sherri and Bob didn't even get pinned until October and Tom really does think happiness is dating a Theta. Timothy competed with Bill for Joan's affections, but Hodges finally hooked her little sister's big brother. Buttons was "Our Man in Panhell" and fought for longer skirts, while Hopie sweated over her grade from Douglas pending election results. Julie and George warmed the couch all winter, not to mention fall and spring . . . Does anyone know what kind of car Julie has? Fred—how 'bout you? Coith won the race for the X Club Girl-of-the-Month by a mile while Sunni walked the thin line between Life and Death all year. Stiner and Dinah not only share a room, but they caught the same fish, and Dinah has scars to prove it. Nicki shows signs of being a good housewife—she even tried a vacuum cleaner. Tina: I guess I love him, I guess I love him not . . .," and Etten wears makeup for only a select few. Hackney and Ted went on separate vacations this year, but Gen'l Ben took a new friend on a romantic ocean voyage. Kreider regained us with praise for her personal Valentino while Kitty kept us in stitches with her "Goldie Moldie Oldies." Bam didn't really make the President's List, Buckley did and it was all done with mirrors. Tuna—how many weddings do you have to be in before you get to be the bride? Bonnie won a second date with LeVecchio and Sandwich Man found bad meat in the Theta house. Lindy turned into the "Yogurt Kid," and Briggs is giving subscriptions to Mademoiselle to all her friends. Gift suggestion for Jane Butts: an 8 x 10 glossy of Otis Redding. Connie took full advantage of her Senior Key, then moved off campus and issued a key to Bill. Maybe Marcia and Leslie spoke to each other? "What's that new building over there?" Bethie, thanks for getting us the sharpest pledge class on campus. And in closing, we all stack it up for Karlie!

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

Scenes we would like to see in and around the Kappa house: Hirsch in rags ... Parksy not being a martyr ... Molly tuned in ... Tobey driving a jalopy ... Cauble with a Yankee accent and walking straight ... Frank looking old, ugly, and sexually satisfied ... Preston with recurring cases of laryngitis ... Meezie settle down with her North Carolina cracker ... Mercer substituting for Goldie ... RahRah without Wa Wa ... Cami out of Lambie Pi or at least not talking about it ... Kay with a few more inches here and there ... Overton with tact and poise ... Buck not acting superior ... Marcy playing a straight role ... McNiff being a successful matchmaker ... Fuller not borrowing anything ... Burroughs smiling ... Anderson taking voice lessons ... Fidao not talking about her problems ... Moniger settled down ... Hartwig without makeup and not in front of a mirror ... Wilson cutting the naive bit ... Dixon finding herself ... Charles passing room inspection ... Folkerth not tossing her cookies ... Phoebe Howard back again ... Cyd out of her Brownie Scout uniform ... Mona not crying in meetings ... McDuffie off her cloud ... The Pledges out of trouble and with larger capacities ... Seniors just the same ... Juniors as cool as they think they are ... Sophomores, some here and some elsewhere ... Freshmen, all here for four years!

PHI MU

Over-population hit Fox Hall as Cloverleaf crumbled ... Josie: Her house championship was topped only by the number of times she failed room inspection ... Norman's doll ... Squash discovered the joys of motorcycle-riding ... Roz's hairdryer was anything but dry ... in times of tension Elmore found secluded places to withdraw: like under the coffee table ... the other man in Clausen's life: he delivers the Cokes ... Moorman pledged and harmony reigned ... Sally's 3 x 4-foot Sam ... Cheri and Nan have been reading COSMOPOLITAN ... Cathy had problems with marauding invaders through the connecting door ... Corley: It was always truckest before the jeep ... we said, "Wish were there," to Jan ... Lorrie: conspicuous only in its absence ... and Chris was at the theatre ... Cohen and Boca ... The Great Spoon Robbery of 1969 ... Doni never got the flowers off her stomach ... Tricia's garden was transomdental ... our apologies to Underdog for 3 years of dump ... Sandy and Bebe kept their Grout in the bathtub ... Marg and Jane and Chris were at the theatre ... Nancy's collection ... Judi: was that a legitimate lei-over in Hawaii? Valerie's addition to our living room ... Josie and Bebe moved in together, but Mari promised to out-mess them both ... Joan kept us waiting and Ingalls surprised us all ... even Pam ... Cindy was our outdoor girl ... Mary carried more trays than Debby ... Mimi proceeds to preside ... Ardy lived in trees ... and Chris was at the theatre.

PI BETA PHI

As the year draws to a close, we feel that some very special awards are due to the various members of the sorority. Marion Brewer won the Best "Supported" Actor, while Jane Carrison lost unfortunately to the tennis tour. Two Nobel Prizes were won this year: to Maggie Curtis Perez went the Nobel Peace Prize for the greatest improvement of Spanish-American relations and to "Blondie" went the Nobel Prize in Literature for writing "How to get Rich Without Spending a Penny." Conyers won the Up-Chuck Award, while Cindy Kent won the Purity Award. Clairol awarded Mimi Jenks the "Does She, Or Doesn't She?" Award and to Wheels went the "Should She, Or Shouldn't She?" Award. Sharon Haislip and Judy Kiersky won the "Share and Share Alike" Award, as Taulbee received a plaque for putting the most mileage on a brand new car in one year. Unfortunaely, Jan Hoyle did not receive an award this year, but if at first you don't succeed, Jan, Trey, Trey again. Ruthy received the best Offensive Player Award in the East-Westy Game. Several groups on campus recognized Pi Phis: This year Gretchen got the I.F.C. Award for BEST Girl Rusher of 1969, the Clubbers started a new tradition by awarding the title of "Gumdrop Girl" to Dollinger; and Greene became the Delt Queen. Welchie won the Toleration Award for putting up with the Student Center and the Pi Phis and Jean Leith won the assistantship to the Dean of Fraternities. A well known company extended an award to one girl: The Johnson & Johnson gave Brownie the "Baby Talk" Award. Joan Metsch won the "Ultra-Brite Girl" Award and Karen Payne received from Nutrament an award for the most weight gained—she went from a 90 lb. weakling to a 98 lb. weakling. Jane Farrimond received the Mayflower Hall Award for the most late hours ever taken in the history of the house. The "Highest" Award goes to Melinda Crockett (alias "Squint") for long distance phone calls. Jenny Weller won special recognition for her part in the creation and production of "2001—a Space Odyssey" and Cathy Hammond was her runner-up. Cathy Holt won the Joe Bellino Award while Linda Long won "Betty B.B." Kay Crowell received an award for the Best Picture of a Stork in Mademoiselle and Taffy "grunted" her way to another victory. In Elizabeth Hall the excitement was high as Billie Rich received the "Phantom Counselor Trophy" and on the other side of the campus Stahle got an award for the "Best Understudy" of the year. Muffie won the Inter-School Award for the best Term Paper Writer. Patty Knight was Head Knight of the Pledge Round Table and gave out the Awards as follows: Beth Gould—Best and Most Unnoticeable Accent; Allyson Staley—Award for the Most Unwanted Phone Calls; Janis Hirsch—the Quietest Pledge; Ru Ravenel—the Most Undecided Rushee; Carol Whittaker—Most Cooperative Boozer and Mary Rose received an award for realizing that a Bird in the Hand is worth Nothing. Forester wins the "Gabby" Award and Dean Howden would like to personally award Susan Gregory with her diploma. Last, but by no means least, comes Nielsen bouncing, bouncing, bouncing down the hall and says "Know what guys? I love Him."

KAPPA ALPHA ORDER

The KA House experienced its usual ups and downs, but no matter what anyone says, Dancers' Image really did win the Kentucky Derby—Somers has been hooked and netted, but Daddy Clanton is one step ahead and Frankenberry is somewhere in between .. Whitlock stills owes money ... Gamber has been known to take his booze with a Powder Puff .. Cornish and Wiley came out ahead as expected .. duPont got caught in Barb wire and Johannsen got Poison Ivy .. Tock Bottom is all Molly has .. Nix may be a good No. 1 hut he still can't tell the difference between a paddle and an oar ... Malboeuf grew long hair and played Samson Philly Hanson can't get Laryngitis enough . sorry Warner, Candy gets top billing on Corbett's list, hut she's still no Fox .. Julie has a little Lamb; sorry George .. Laffoon and Childs wintered in Martinique and learned a little French on the side .. Cy mourned the death of the Green Grunt .. King discovered women for the first time and enjoyed it ... Shep tries Harder Strober wasted no time in discovering all of the night spots in the area and Dillon wasted no time in discovering Ann ... Bird and Stern sit in the sun all day to see who can get the best tan; sorry Ray, Patrick wins .. Otis quit cooking Tamales to take up yachting McGrath said that he'd never see his Folks again .. Bretschger was Pegged from the beginning .. Sam and Dave pledged KA, but did they have to bring the HULK along?

But Munro wins the Laura Luxury Automobile-of-the-Year Award .. BoBo ate his way into the hearts of everyone and Derek may think the jet set is great, but Tiny Tim is taking it a little too far

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

1969 was a topsey-turvey year for the Lambdas . . . Westgate, who ever thought of looking for Taffy in the linen closet . . . Needles has been suffering from a Charleyhorse . . . Rosen still couldn't get Rich while Joel didn't doubt Chick's integrity . . . Phinny, what film are you starring in . . . Sorry Dunc, can't think of anything. Frankly Jud, was it worth the wait . . . T.K. still doesn't believe in pins . . . Angus buttoned down, while J.G. misplaced his leash . . . Father Law still hunts in the convent and Murph wishes he could have sauerkraut. Cecil found a dogtrack in Sarasota and lost his pants . . . Wes took hold of Miss Kentucky Fried Chicken and Tris split as a hippie. Biebs told the landlady that in five months he would be . . . Two out of three nice record Brad. Too bad Lovell, Borman, and Anders, Larry was there first . . . Wilson got the ax . . . Ross what happens on Monday afternoons . . . Hoggie got back in but Cavic might leave. Jonap still running after Loufax while P.W. trimmed his bushes. Lyndsay Job, President Young Republicans and campus activists. Jarrell taught the brothers about love poems . . . Mathews was our court representative . . . Howie remained tied in knots and Ghent kept it on. Aspenwall got a new pair of hands and Larry couldn't match Gimbels. Miner remained a portable P.A. system. T-Shirt finally put on a tie and Dinger still is waiting. Pistor got the shaft and Lee, well you are a joke . . . Keil, two time Chi O sweetheart . . . Who' Who? We will always remember the Great Pimp, pitch fever, Club Juana, far and away the best pledges, and out National symbol Brother Zuk.

PHI DELTA THETA

With the international charter in our hands, things really began to happen at the Phi Delt House this year. Social events were somehow increased and "a good time was had by all." Membership, scholarship, and athletics were stressed with great success in all but the latter.

Showalter became a Lambie Pi and Heinous became Fuzzy . . . Hussar played a great game but Bones stuck to his frery balls . . . Johnston investigated Portuguese politics while the best pledge class on campus underwent baptism by wine . . . Foam's car went 25 mph, while Van's jeep didn't.

Weston acquired his freedom while Grant and Mammal lost theirs . . . Dickinson was rush chairman while athletic chairman Gormo passed the test at Tucker's party . . . Coup left temporarily but Dr. R.B. Smith became a brother . . . Homer got an R-Book and a car but Pendery decided to fly . . . a common sight was Danys with a banjo under one arm and Mardi under the other . . . also evident were Ryan's capacity and Papa's reputation in the pipe shop . . . Stony came out of the lab for hard cider and Gingold vacated the Langford long enough to play Q-back. And we couldn't forget our man in Spain, the reopening of the Phlug House Bar and Cocktail Lounge in a new location, or the return of Mong.

SIGMA NU

In 1968-1969, The Year of the Snake, many organizations were originated. Who will ever forget—S.D.S., S.A.B.D., F.D.F., S.O.M.F., and the D.O.'s on the D.F. The brothers also enjoyed their many associations with the various snarfs, phoffers, hubbers, and goebilanzers around the house. Among the notables are Sholls with his garrulous suggestions .. D.Z. the Crown Prince of Pinochle ... Remember the night Harrison slept in the House ... Big Chuck's overwhelming love of fraternity .. McMunn and his Crescent Girl ... "Moves" Buchanan ... Dead Wood drifted to the Club ... Aesop's fables ... Willie kicked his way to Cathy's heart ... Baby Jim, "Got to Have Some" ... Gelbman's Rosary ... Hartog's trips to Atlanta ... Myers admitted he was P.W.'ed ... Kappa Cliff and the White Knight ... Kuta and Egolf were FBI Agents ... Mush and his Rhesus Monkey ... Osinski still dated guys ... Friday Night Weaver Parties ... Marty-man made it will a Doll ... Twiggy nubbed "Them" ... Yates played in a psychedelic house .. Wenham, Dr. Hayes best patient ... Carter went from an Alpha Phi to a Delta Queen ... Biddle tested Kelly's bed ... Gagliardi and Heidt, the New Left ... Daniel's favorite drink was Sherry ... Cro learned poker the hard way .. Aw Hose! ... England was voted best in his pledge class .. Cake-Man moved from the choir to the loft ... T-Ball swam ino the gym ... Roy rode bare-back ... Skeezix grew a caterpillar .. Liber and Scott played catch with Valenti ... Lague and Esterline passed out ... Rix couldn't mix with Sister Hicks ... Winchester was taught Hypertension Sit Ups .. White is another Weaver ... The Barry never touched ground ... Doug hustled a Chi O .. Von Seltonberger drinkt braun Beer .. Gordie's "Golden Boy" Gale ... Has anyone seen Hottenroth frown? ... Johnson, the "Bogie Man" ... Coogan went Kappa ... Ross ran his Greene Barracuda ... The Malimow Bird watched over them all while Marszalek drank. Last but not least .. SHAKE A-"T" was never at "R"

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

Once again the Sig Eps have enjoyed an auspicious year. The brotherhood in many cases fulfilled the promises of the new awakening—for instance—Chevalier got married by mail; Buchko got snaked; Taylor got squashed; Chance got K.W.'d; Sams got Jaked; Keys got collected; Woodruff got some sleep; Paul got bitten; Miller got gerbiled; Natoli got the Russian Flu; Kane got souled; Coley got socialized; Dahl got pledged; Manthorne and Merriman got ratted on; Greene got a little foxy; Wilson got cuddled; Matin got Rowan; McNeil got told; LoLome got frenched; Sparrow got spirited; Heffernan got cliched; Dobbs finally got; Seago got too; Skinner got a single; Miller got a part; Deuthch got mad; Woodard got Europed; Cassleman got a chance; and the rest of the actives got a bird from the pledges.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

Russ went to France and look what he missed this year. Brecht changed from a vulture to a Baldwin eagle. Alexander had trouble with his studies because of the Star in his eyes . . . Skinny was the unofficial Parliamentarian of the living room. The Oreo kid was eaten up by the Phis. Zeke lost one here, lost one there, and then couldn't get anything started. Calamia used Hai Karate and fought off the dogs. Fagan gave up fishing and went Camping with Nancy. Gale would have scored more goals if he hadn't Horsed around with the phone. Flake pulled a fast exodus to the K.A. house. Dames had trouble with the same. Eggy and Heggy; how does her garder grow? Heller's high hopes centered on getting hooked. Hodad tried to shoot the generation gap, but wiped out when he hit a language barrier. Jarman was seen Crusading around Ronnie's. The King relinquished his throne and took Preston on a magic carpet ride. Bill K.: if you try and don't succeed, maybe it's your bod. The most eligible fiance Chucked everything for the theater. Frydenborg's man stork flew off to Cape Kennedy for seventy-five dollars an hour. Greasy had two, got his wires crossed, and blew his fuses. Several freshman girls found Koala's phone calls hard to bear . . . Krames growled his way to venerable hairiness—with a Bel Air yet. Ace had Maryland tags and a buttoned lip. Robin hitched his bronc at the Pi Phi house. Cal found a Fuzzier roommate, conquered academia, and flew on to new challenges. Lep was forced to turn pro for good, so the Bugger found a new Playmate. The Preppy Penguin Prefect perfected the perpetual helmet. Miller expanded into the used car business and became an automatic Jean-ius. Linda: It would behoove you to know Robert's Rules of Order. Pappa Nietz was for real. Teke's mafia duo ran into a tough defense, but sneeded through court for a 6-0 victory over the Orlando cops. The big Bear's Maine concern was his Ruthless social life. Robie and Connie frequented Harpers' in preparation for their Florida bar exam. This year the Tekes finally got the Schert off their backs. The Monk went to court to hash things out. Chet said the European situation was topsy-turvy. The Red Baron rallied well amidst political fireworks. Gett caught a couple of fish at home, but couldn't even hold onto his razor. The windmill breezed thru the year, fend ring for himself. Mohan said that if it isn't Sandy in Jacksonville, he's going to Sue. How about all that Russ? What does Arty say?

X CLUB

Once again the X-Club "grained" much recognition, with the aid of some "white lightning"; this is how the Club looks through a weekend hangover: BoBo Tremaine, wonder boy of the bucket brigade, finally received his 6th grade diploma (emeritus) and has been hired as a stand-in for Jethro on the "Beverly Hillbillies." "Spock" Knutson is secretly a fashion consultant for Mademoiselle. John "Red Meat" Kennedy joined hands with Woody and Gene to compute the Park Avenue eternal triangle. Heywood "Papa" Cooper is soon to become a wardrobe consultant for the defunct Mark, Fore, and Strike because of his financial management and because he "Sits in." Jacqueline "Goody" Myers finally got his wings; now he can really fly! Charles "Diaper" and Clyde have sub-leased a restaurant for next year so they can charge all their own meals and court their own clientel. Fittatte, star of Last Exit to Brooklyn, never missed his Lunch. Neither did anyone else. Pedro Cahall has a bright future in show business. He does great imitations of a good guy. "Brillo" Lambright supporting an Afro hairdo, thought he was a Stop sign on Orange Avenue. "Critty" Christie, in hopes of making Jamaica, made one fatal error. He went out for the golf team and got "hosed" by a pro. Costa got a little "Rich" over Christmas; but will undoubtedly be "Billed" for it. Gardner is awarded the "Good Housekeeping Seal" for "Living Better Electrically." Buzz is the only student who writes from two desks at the same time; but that's just between you and "eye." Harry "the bone" Johnson was destined to be a fall-guy for the I.M. force, but they secretly disavowed any knowledge of his existence. Paul was cast opposite Ruthy in the famous Hebrew drama: A Raisin in the Sun; but he walked off the set halfway through the filming. John "Rabbit" Latimer went out bird watching and sighted a yellow breasted "phoebebird." "Trix are for kids Th ... Th ... That's all Folks." Bill Koch flamed his way from the Pflug House as an Olympic "Torch" Bearer (the biggest "soccer" of them all) and got himself a "Toni"—Pat Crowley: "Rotundus Gucci" returns this year from another "safari" with some of his tallest tales ever—John "Hermit" McDermid—a clean shaven Bolshevik; a be-spectacled grandmother; an orderly drunk; and the paternal grandson of Fydor Dostoyvsky—George Dropher: almost "Bucked" by a Texas Ranger; his mind was dis-"engaged"—Elliot "East Coast" Stedman covered his "moon" with hippie garb; Castro is alove and stoned in Eliot's beard. VARSITY SOCCER

If winning is the measure of success, the Rollins College soccer team finished the '68 season as the most successful in Rollins College history. Led by head Coach Gordon Howell and Assistant Coach Boyd Coffee, the team achieved a 9-1-2 record with victories over some of the strongest teams in the Southeast. The season began with the first annual blue-gold inter-squad game. This exhibition was a display of the Rollins talent which led the team to its many triumphs. A major highlight of the season was the first game in which Rollins defeated the University of Miami which had long been an invincible rival. The 2-1 upset gave notice to all that Rollins was to be a strong contender. The Tars then breezed through their next two games, defeating Florida Presbyterian and St. Leo College of Dade City. Rollins first major rival, Florida Southern College, provided stiff competition for the Tar offense and defense, but succumbed to a relentless attack, being defeated 2-1 in the two teams' first encounter. Their second game proved to be even more exciting but the Tars again won, this time by the score of 3-2. It will be remembered that during the '67 season Rollins and Florida Southern Soccer Teams shared first place honors in the now disbanded Florida Inter-Collegiate Conference. Rollins first major disappointment came when the Tars tied a strong Georgia State team in a hotly contested match. The Tars then came back with two big wins against arch rival Stetson University, and a second win over St. Leo College. Rollins' trip to Miami proved to be the low point of the season as Miami handed Rollins its first and only loss. Still suffering from their previous loss, the team traveled to Jacksonville University, to face what had been termed the strongest team in Florida. Jacksonville managed to tie the Tars, coming back in the second half to make up a two goal deficit. Rollins final homecoming game on Saturday, the thirtieth of November, proved to be the highpoint of the season. In front of several hundred alumni and friends of the college, the Tars whipped the Hatters by the unbelievable score of 7-0. This proved to be a glorious ending to a great season.

In analyzing the success of this year's team, the strongest in the state of Florida, credit must be given to Coach Howell. The goals he set for the team seemed unattainable, and yet his enthusiasm and desire for success were so great that it carried over to the team members; they too were instilled with the strong desire to win and in his words, "be champions."

Coach Howell did, however, have outstanding material to work with. Wilson Flohr, All South center forward, led the impressive lineup of seniors on the team. Cliff Montgomery proved to be the "ironman" of the defense, making fantastic recoveries at his center halfback position. Goalie Jim Hardee, who for the past two seasons had been under the tutorage of All State Goalie Dick Myers, allowed less than two goals per game. Jeff Burns used his size and weight to best advantage in sparking the team at the left halfback position. Gale Coleman, All American pitcher on the Tars baseball team, proved to be a valuable asset to the soccer team as well. Underclassmen, also, shared the limelight as a number of sophomores and juniors broke into the starting lineup. Halfbacks Dave Heidt, Chas. Haywood, and Noel Eggleston, all outstanding players, provided the team with the necessary speed and stamina to keep both the offense and defense at its best. The outside positions were manned by sophomore Mike Brelsford and junior Robin Leech, both speedsters and great ball handlers. The inside positions were left in the capable hands of junior Bill Koch and sophomore Lee Hildenbiddle. Starting fullbacks Buzz Friend and Paul Wright kept the opposition out of the defensive perimeter very successfully this year, allowing the opposition less than twenty shots per game. Other standouts on the team were inside Stan Gale, junior goalie Chuck Kitchell, sophomore fullback Chas. Bellker, freshman wing Doug Welsh, sophomore halfback Jeff Bestic, and freshman center forward Pete Williams.

Prospects for next year are excellent. With only five seniors leaving Coach Howell may have some difficulty filling the center forward and center halfback positions; with a large group of enthusiastic underclassmen, however, he should be able to find the right men for the job. The College can be truely proud of this year's soccer team and its fine new coach. It is believed that the years to come will bring even more success, and if this year is any indication, the Rollins Soccer Team may be nationally prominent within the next few seasons.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Taking a cue from the soccer team, the Tar basketball squad surprised nearly everyone by registering Rollins' best record in more than a decade.

The pre-season outlook was bleak since only three lettermen returned from a team that won 11 games the year before, but, buoyed by the new Enyart Alumni Field House and vociferous student support, the young Tars matured quickly.

Coach Boyd Coffie's cagers first indicated 1968-1969 would be more than a rebuilding year in the season opener, christening the new field house with a 77-72 victory over arch-rival Stetson University before a capacity Homecoming crowd. Later the Tars proved they had come of age by throttling Bethune-Cookman College and its All-American Johnnie Allen 83-76.

The season's success was clearly a team effort, combining balanced scoring, strong rebounding and stingy defense. Super sophomore Lawrence Martinez, sixth man most of his freshman season, was Coffie's chief weapon as he canned long jumpers and fast break layups for around 20 points a game. Junior guard, Frank Valenti, who sat out the 1967-1968 campaign after lettering as a freshman, emerged as the heart of Rollins' offense. Stealing the ball and establishing a school record for assists, he consistently scored in double figures.

Freshman jumping jack Tim Shea, whose starting debut coincided with the Tars' mid season surge, rapidly became one of the most exciting players ever to wear Rollins' blue-and-gold. Averaging more than 10 points each night, Shea remained near the team lead in rebounding although he usually started in the backcourt.

Despite erratic point production, juniors Jim Murphy, 6-foot-4, and Cliff Livingston, 6-foot-7, were outstanding defensively and gave Rollins the rebounding might necessary for a winning campaign. Throughout the season, Coffie extolled the virtues of his substitutes, often referring to his "eight regulars" rather than his "five starters."

Providing this necessary depth were freshman Dwight Higgs, sophomore Mark Freidinger and junior Rich Westfal. Higgs, 6-foot-4, added punch up front, while Freidinger and Westfal lent experience to the backcourt.

Freshman Rick Liber, Chuck Morton, Rick Paprocki, Denny Scott and Steve Winchester displayed flashes of brilliance in junior varsity competition. Guard, Greg Fitzpatrick, the only senior on the squad, and junior, Larry Strickland, proved to be valuable reserves.

Next season's success may be even more exciting. Only one of Coffie's 14 cagers is graduating.

ADMINISTRATION
FACULTY

PRESIDENT
HUGH F. McKEAN

Hugh F. McKean is a leader, and so it must be in order to oversee the administration of a school like Rollins College. In an age of change and question, point and counterpoint, it is good to know that the President stands staunchly behind his school in the search for an increasingly effective academic community.

During his years here at Rollins, President McKean has proven again and again his belief that cooperation among students, faculty, and administration is best maintained through discussion and the will to understand. His vision is practical yet full of high aspirations and hopes of a fine and respected institution of higher learning where many may learn mentally as well as socially.
